

4th Ludovika International Law Enforcement Research Symposium (LILERS)

Faculty of Law Enforcement, Ludovika University of Public Service

Budapest, Hungary

15-16 October 2025

SAVE THE DATE

The Faculty of Law Enforcement of the University of Public Service organizes a symposium dedicated to the current trends of the research conducted in the field of law enforcement with the title '4rd Ludovika International Law Enforcement Research Symposium (LILERS)' in Budapest, in the fall of 2025. The conference's aim – like in the previous years – is to introduce the current research findings and the newest trends in modern policing, focusing primarily, but not exclusively, on Central and Eastern Europe. Participation in the conference will also be available online via the MS Teams communication platform. Please note that presentations can only be delivered in person, except in duly justified cases.

THEMATIC AREAS OF THE SYMPOSIUM

1. Cybercrime, IT security, artificial intelligence in law enforcement
2. Forensic science and criminalistics
3. Law enforcement management and education
4. International law enforcement cooperation in the EU
5. Organized crime,
6. Terrorism
7. Public safety
8. Disaster management
9. Corrections
10. Open corner (freely chosen topic in the field of law enforcement)

COSTS

There is no registration fee for the conference. However, travel expenses will be the responsibility of the participants. Catering will be provided during the event.

Registered guests will also receive complimentary airport transfers. The organizers will cover the cost of university guest rooms (one person per room). For attendees opting not to utilize the university accommodation, we highly recommend the Hotel Akeah, elegantly situated at 1091 Budapest, Üllői út 89/B, in close proximity to the university (<https://www.smartrental.com/en/akeah/budapest/>). Guests are kindly expected to cover their own accommodation costs in external hotels.
